Manager's not applying for Door to Door Permit must complete an Individual Information Form.

List all Colorado cities and/or not less than three other communities in which a peddler's or door-to-door sales license or permit is presently held by the applicant organization. Include address & contact information:

Please provide a brief description of the merchandise to be sold or other activity that requires a license and permit pursuant to the Cañon City Municipal Code. Applicant may attach copies of promotional sales brochures to satisfy this requirement:

Conditions:

- No person shall transfer or attempt to transfer a peddler's license to any other person. No peddler's license shall be used by any person other than the person to whom it was issued.
- The following additional conditions and regulations also shall apply to the exercise of the privileges granted by a license issued to a peddler under the provisions of the Cañon City Municipal Code:
  - No person acting under authority of any permit or license issued under the Cañon City Municipal Code shall violate any City ordinance or any state or federal statute while engaged in door-to-door sales activities within the City. Minor traffic violations are excepted from this provision.
  - Except as specified below, it is unlawful for any peddler to:
    - Enter upon any residence where a no solicitation sign that is visible from the right-of-way (public or private) has been clearly posted in the front yard. Any such sign shall be at least one square foot in size and the words thereon shall be displayed in letters that are at least two inches in height.

- Remain upon any residence or residential property where a no solicitation sign that is clearly visible is placed upon or within two feet of any door or entranceway leading into the residence.
  - Use or attempt to use any entrance other than the front or main entrance to the residence, or step from the sidewalk or indicated walkway (where one exists) leading from the right-of-way to the front or main entrance of the residence, except by express invitation of the resident or occupant of the property.
  - Remove a no solicitation sign from the yard or other property of any person without the express permission of the owner of such property.
  - Exception: A peddler, solicitor, or canvasser may enter upon property posted with a no solicitation sign if he or she had an express invitation from, or a specific appointment with, the owner or occupant of the posted property authorizing him or her to enter upon such posted property at the time when such entry was made.
- Times when unsolicited contact is prohibited. Unless he or she has been invited and has a specific appointment with the owner or other occupant of a residence, no peddler, solicitor or canvasser shall enter upon any private residence, knock on doors, ring doorbells or otherwise disturb persons in their residences between the hours 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 a.m.
  - Trespass Laws Not Affected. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to repeal or otherwise restrict or prohibit the enforcement of any ordinance or statute concerning trespassing on public or private property.
  - Penalties: Any person convicted of violating any provision of the Cañon City Municipal Code relative to Door-to-Door Sales shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in jail for not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and such jail sentence.
    - A separate offense may be charged for each calendar day when any such violation occurs or continues to occur.
    - In addition to any penalty provided for herein, any person convicted of violating any provision of the Cañon City Municipal Code relative to Door-to-Door Sales shall automatically forfeit any license or permit issued under the provisions of this Chapter and such person shall be prohibited from obtaining a license or permit hereunder for a period of twenty-four (24) months.
